The 8th edition of the Chhatra Sansad India Conclave at Lovely Professional University was a grand success, uniting some of the nation's most eminent personalities with thousands of aspiring youth under the inspiring theme India @ 100. This dynamic platform sparked meaningful dialogue on leadership, innovation, and the country's future. Notable guests included Ms. Smriti Irani, Former Union Minister and Member of Parliament; Ms. Jaya Kishori, renowned spiritual orator; Mr. Khan Sir, celebrated educationist; Dr. V Narayanan, Chairman of ISRO; Maulana Kalbe Rushaid, respected social reformer; and Mr. Temjen Along, Nagaland's Minister of Tourism and Higher Education.

LPU Secures Back-to-Back Overall Championship at 38th National Youth Festival

Lovely Professional University (LPU) has once again demonstrated its prowess in the performing arts, clinching the Overall Championship Trophy for the second consecutive year at the 38th National Youth Festival, organized by the Association of Indian Universities. The LPU contingent delivered stellar performances, securing an impressive haul of 10 Gold, 4 Silver, and 4 Bronze medals. This remarkable achievement positioned LPU above numerous universities and institutions from across India. LPU's dominance was particularly evident in the Theatre category, where they emerged as Overall Champions. They also secured the top spot in the Cultural Procession category. Furthermore, LPU showcased their versatility by claiming the Overall Runner-up position in the Music, Literary, and Fine Arts categories.

LPU's Campus Ablaze with Cultural Pride: A Grand Procession Celebrates AIU Victory

Our #LPUFamily came together in a grand celebration to honor our spectacular victory at the 38th National Youth Festival! For the second consecutive year, we have proudly clinched the Overall Championship Trophy, proving our excellence in art, culture, and performance. With 10 Gold, 4 Silver, and 4 Bronze medals, we secured top positions in Theatre, Cultural Procession, Music, Literary, and Fine Arts categories. This achievement stands as a testament to the unwavering dedication, talent, and hard work of our Vertos. The celebrations were filled with joy, pride, and motivation to continue our journey toward excellence and innovation. LPU remains committed to shaping future leaders through EduRevolution, ensuring that our students shine in every sphere.

Youth Take Charge: 8th Chhatra Sansad India Conclave at LPU Paves the Way for Vision India 2047

Lovely Professional University (LPU) recently hosted the 8th edition of the Chhatra Sansad India (CSI) Conclave, a landmark event that brought together over 20,000 young minds and some of the country's most influential leaders. Held under the theme "Vision India 2047: Bharat @ 100," the conclave served as a powerful platform to ignite patriotism, leadership, and social responsibility among India's youth, while envisioning the nation's growth in its centennial year of independence.

The event was inaugurated by Dr. Ashok Kumar Mittal, Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha) and Founder Chancellor of LPU, who inspired the students to become active participants in India's transformation. Dr. Mittal emphasized that the youth hold the power to redefine the nation's future and highlighted LPU's commitment to nurturing leaders who will take India to new global heights.

ISRO Chairman V. Narayanan urged students to push the boundaries of innovation and pursue excellence in science and space exploration. He reinforced that India's space program is not about competing with other countries but about unlocking the country's own potential—and that youth must lead this mission. Former Union Minister Smriti Irani shared valuable life lessons about resilience, integrity, and enterprise, encouraging students to build ventures that not only generate success but also contribute to India's economic growth. Spiritual leader and motivational speaker Jaya Kishori emphasized the importance of self-discipline, ethical strength, and values, reminding the audience that success grounded in kindness can uplift an entire nation.

Temjen Imna Along, Minister for Higher Education and Tribal Affairs, Government of Nagaland, called for an inclusive India where every region and community thrives equally. His message of unity and diversity resonated strongly with the audience. Renowned educator Khan Sir added humor and heart to the proceedings, connecting deeply with the youth and calling them to be informed, active citizens. Social reformer Maulana Kalbe Rushaid Rizvi stressed the need for strong moral foundations in national leadership. Adv. Kunal Sharma, Founder President of Chhatra Sansad India, passionately urged students not to wait for change but to lead it from the ground level, reminding them that the future lies in their hands.

Many national figures including Nitin Gadkari, Anurag Thakur, Vikrant Massey, Imran Pratapgarhi, Suresh Prabhu, Rahul Shivshankar, and Lt. General Ajay Chandpuria joined the conclave via video messages. They shared insights on digital transformation, innovation, governance, and civic responsibility, all with the unified message that India's progress depends on the action and ownership of its youth.

A thought-provoking debate on "One Nation, One Election," chaired by Maulana Kalbe Rushaid Rizvi, also formed a key highlight of the conclave. Students actively participated, bringing forward sharp, diverse perspectives on electoral reforms and national unity, showcasing the intellectual and political maturity of India's emerging generation.

Chhatra Sansad India Conclave at LPU: A Power-Packed Gathering of Visionary Leaders and 20,000+ Youth for Vision India 2047

The vibe at Lovely Professional University (LPU) on March 21, 2025, was absolutely electric! The 8th Chhatra Sansad India Conclave brought together over 20,000 students and some of India’s biggest names in politics, education, media, and social work – all under one roof to talk about “Vision India 2047: Bharat @ 100.” And yes, it was as powerful as it sounds! From ISRO Chairman Shri V. Narayanan to Smriti Irani, Anurag Thakur, Imran Pratapgarhi, Khan Sir, Jaya Kishori, Temjen Imna Along, and Maulana Kalbe Rushaid Rizvi, the lineup was straight-up legendary. And the best part? Every speaker had one mission – to inspire us, the youth, to lead India into the future.

Dr. Ashok Kumar Mittal, our very own Chancellor and Rajya Sabha MP, kickstarted the event with a motivational speech that had the entire auditorium buzzing with energy. He reminded us that we are the change-makers and the time to act is now.

Smriti Irani talked about rising above challenges and building our own businesses, while Khan Sir had the crowd hooked with his relatable stories and desi humor. Jaya Kishori gave us chills with her message about self-discipline and leading with kindness. And Temjen Imna Along? He lit up the stage talking about unity and making sure no region or person is left behind in India’s growth.

We even got some powerful video messages from leaders like Nitin Gadkari, Vikrant Massey, Lt. General Chandpuria, and Rahul Shivshankar, all urging us to take charge and be the driving force behind India’s progress – especially in fields like tech, innovation, media, and defense.

One of the highlights was the debate on “One Nation, One Election,” led by Dr. Rizvi. Students from different backgrounds pitched in their views, making it one of the most intense and eye-opening parts of the day.

Kunal Sharma, the Founder of Chhatra Sansad India, said it best: “This isn’t just an event – it’s a movement. A call to rise, to lead, and to build the India we all dream of.”

Honestly, this conclave wasn’t just inspiring – it felt like being part of history in the making. From incredible speeches to real conversations about our future, CSI at LPU was all about energy, ideas, and action. We left the hall feeling like our generation truly has the power to shape Bharat @ 100 – and we’re ready to take that challenge head-on.
